

PRESS RELEASE/ 02-22

Singapore / Mar 10, 2022/ GMT+8 1613 hrs

Unavailability of Official Instagram Page

In response to the unavailability of our Instagram page @2tonevintage, we are currently looking into the matter. We became aware of this issue last evening due to the many private messages from friends and followers. We extend our heartfelt appreciation for the concerns shown to 2ToneVintage Watches.

Around 5pm last evening on the 9 March 2022, we began to receive feedbacks that no content was available on the page and by 9pm, the account ceased to exist. Our content and followers for so many years vanished overnight and this is a heart-wrenching moment for us. We are still actively trying to resume operation of the original IG page but we are afraid it might take longer than expected.

It wasn't easy for us to organically achieve 5000 followers late last year. It was a joyous and momentous event since we stayed true to ourselves and refused offers to 'Buy' followers. Over the years, we have gathered a loyal base of true collectors and appreciators of vintage watches, of which we extend our heartfelt gratitude for their prompt concerns and care as to what happened to the IG page.

We shall actively seek ways to restore our original page but in the meantime, we seek your patience and cooperation by visiting our alternative page @2tonevintagewatches for the latest updates, including the status of the original Instagram page. Thank you.
